Snow Day Make Up

You might remember that last year after the black out, we extended our day by 10 minutes. We kept the extra time in the schedule this year which built in 3 extra school days if needed. Because of that, we will not have to make up any of the snow days we have had. If for some reason we would have additional days off before the end of the year, we will have to make the additional days up.

Market Day

Last chance to place a Market Day Order for March. Orders due online by Saturday, March 6th at 11 PM. One additional special for March sale. Save $8 when you spend $80. Just enter promo code: MARSAVE on checkout.
