Baptism: Baptism is a joyful event “by which men and women are freed from their sins... are configured to Christ by an indelible character, and are incorporated into the Church.” (Canon 849 of the Code of Canon Law). People can be baptized as adults or infants. The preparation for adult baptism takes place in the process of the catechumenate, commonly known as the Rite of Christian Initiation of Adults, or RCIA. Any adult desiring baptism may call the office to begin this process. Preparation for infant baptism happens in baptism classes, generally held on the fourth Thursday evening of each month in the Parish Office. No child will be baptized at St. Catherine unless both parents have attended one of these classes in the last five years. Baptism of adults generally takes place on Holy Saturday night, while baptism of infants can take place on any Sunday. Since baptism “incorporates one into the Church,” it is appropriate that the infant be baptized during a Sunday liturgy when the local Church is gathered. There are legitimate reasons for not wanting to have the baptism during a Sunday liturgy; in those cases, baptisms may be scheduled for a Sunday at 1:00 p.m.

Parish Membership – Requires an Active Response

Active members of St. Catherine of Siena Parish have registered and provided the Parish Office with the information needed to complete the census forms. Active members regularly participate in the Saturday evening or Sunday Liturgy at St. Catherine of Siena Parish. Active members invest themselves in the parish by participating in the annual Stewardship Program pledging and contributing time, talent and treasure as God calls them. Active members hold the parish in their daily prayers.

IN OUR PARISH

SNOW REMOVAL – It's that time of year when we need to start thinking about snow removal. We are looking for volunteers to clear the sidewalks and steps on weekends and/or in the evening. This would be a great stewardship opportunity for high school students, as well as a way to earn service hours. In addition to shovelers, we would also like to have someone who would be in charge of the volunteers. This person would contact/organize volunteers on evenings, weekends and holidays (anytime the Parish Office is closed) to make sure that the areas needed to get into church are cleared. If you would like to volunteer for this position or to shovel snow, please contact Don Grothaus at 441-1352, ext. 17 or dgrothaus@stcatherineofsiena.org.

CHILDREN'S CHOIR – Building on the enthusiasm and success of our Christmas Eve children's choir, we are hoping to continue with a children's choir regularly at least until Spring Break. We plan to have the children lead the music for Mass every 5 to 6 weeks. Rehearsals will be held on Thursdays from 4:00-5:00 p.m., beginning January 18th. Please email Brenda Hayden at bhayden@stcatherineofsiena.org to sign up. As usual, Virtus-trained adults will be needed to assist each week.

WE NEED YOU! We could use your help in making our "Let's Go To Mexico" winter fundraiser a successful night for our parish. We need volunteers to help with raffle ticket sales, silent auction, basket raffle, decorations, set-up and marketing the event. Since things are always more fun in a group, consider gathering some friends together and taking on one of these tasks! Maybe your friend group could put together a basket for the basket raffle, gather items for the silent auction, take on overseeing reservations, or getting the word out to the community about the event. Any and all help is needed and greatly appreciated. Please contact Wade Smith at garrett_wade_smith@hotmail.com or call/text 859-816-2145 to volunteer.

LET'S GO TO MEXICO!

ST. BERNARD PANTRY – The pantry is always in need of any nonperishable food items, (peanut butter, cereal, pasta and sauce, canned soup, beans, etc.), paper products and hygiene items for their clients. Additionally, they need clean, plastic bags for food distribution purposes to their clients. All donations are gratefully accepted and can be dropped off in the box at the Rossford entrance or Parish Office. Please be mindful of the Expiration Date or the Best Used by Date when considering your donation. If each family donated just one food item per month, what a difference we could make!

IN OUR DIOCESE

PREPARING FOR END OF LIFE – St. Philip Parish in Melbourne will be hosting a presentation on Preparing for End of Life on Thursday, January 18th at 6:00 p.m. in the church. Topics will be “Moral and Ethical Care” by Rev. Ray Enzweiler; “Funeral Pre-Planning, Cremation and Burial” by Pat Dobbiling; “Estates, Wills, & Trusts” by Chris Lavin & Tom Kaelin; “Hospice Care” by St. Elizabeth Hospice; and “Palliative Care” by Laura Trice. There is no charge for this event.

SUPPORT GROUP FOR SEPARATED AND DIVORCED – New Beginnings is an eight-week program for separated or divorced individuals, which provides an opportunity to heal and move forward despite a complicated situation. Led by facilitators who have been through their own personal losses, this program invites participants to move toward their own new beginning. The next session will be held on consecutive Thursdays – January 25, February 1, February 8, February 15, February 22, February 29, March 7, and March 14, 2024, Time: 7:00 p.m.-8:30 p.m., at Holy Trinity Elementary, 235 Division Street, Bellevue, KY. For more information and to register, visit <https://covdio.org/new-beginnings-2/>.

NATIONAL EUCHARISTIC CONFERENCE

July 17th-21st in Indianapolis. Marian University (located 15 minutes from Lucas Oil Stadium) is hosting high school teens for the Conference and will house, feed, transport, mentor and accompany youth ministry groups through the Conference. This is an opportunity for youth from the Diocese of Covington, to dive deeper into their faith and journey with Catholic youth from around the country. Preregistration deadline is early January. Inquire ASAP.

SPECIAL COLLECTION – The Cathedral Basilica, our mother Church of the Diocese of Covington, is in need of major work to restore and preserve the masonry on the exterior parts of the Cathedral building. This effort is being conducted through the “Restored in Christ” campaign currently underway throughout the Diocese of Covington. In response to this need, Bishop John C. Iffert has instructed parishes of the Diocese of Covington to conduct a second collection during the weekend of January 20th and 21st. These funds will be used exclusively for the restoration of the exterior of the Cathedral Basilica. We will be taking up a second collection next weekend for this campaign.

KENTUCKY MARCH FOR LIFE – Save the Date – Join other Pro-life Kentuckians on Tuesday, January 23rd for the 2024 Kentucky March for Life and “Love Them Both” Rally. The program will begin with Mass at Good Shepherd Parish in Frankfort, followed by a rally at the State Capitol. The event will end with a procession to the Cemetery of the Innocents in the historic Frankfort Cemetery. The Pro-life Office will be organizing buses that will leave from Northern Kentucky. If you are interested in traveling with other parishioners from the Diocese, please contact the Pro-life Office for more information at 859-392-1500.

INVITATION

Reflection on John 1:35-42

God does not seem to follow any pattern, protocol, or formula in making Himself known, or in calling individuals into relationship and gifting them for service. Over and over again, Scripture and countless stories in our tradition reveal that there is no predicting when God will come to us or how the visit might occur.

God can call the apprentice instead of the master, in the middle of the night while he is sleeping, as God did with Samuel. God can call an ordinary fellow out of a crowd of people at 4:00 in the afternoon, as God did with Andrew. Or two fisherman busy cleaning their nets, as with James and John. Or a tax collector hiding up a tree, as with Zacchaeus. Or an atheist walking down a crowded street in mid-town Manhattan, as with Thomas Merton. Or an old woman in her seventies, as with St. Mother Teresa.

"Come and see" – the invitation we hear in today's Gospel – can come to any of us, at any time, anywhere. When the invitation comes to you, even if you are, like Samuel, not yet familiar with the crazy ways of God, may you at least imitate His openness and innocent honesty, by saying: "Here I am Lord. Speak, for your servant is listening."

SAINT GREGORY NAZIANZEN

Saint of the Day: January 14

Patron Saint of: Medieval Bosnia

After his Baptism at 30, Gregory gladly accepted his friend Basil's invitation to join him in a newly founded monastery. The solitude was broken when Gregory's father, a bishop, needed help in his diocese and estate. It seems that Gregory was ordained a priest practically by force, and only reluctantly accepted the responsibility. He skillfully avoided a schism that threatened when his own father made compromises with Arianism. At 41, Gregory was chosen suffragan bishop of Caesarea and at once came into conflict with Valens, the emperor, who supported the Arians.

An unfortunate byproduct of the battle was the cooling of the friendship of two saints. Basil, his archbishop, sent him to a miserable and unhealthy town on the border of unjustly created divisions in his diocese. Basil reproached Gregory for not going to his See.

When protection for Arianism ended with the death of Valens, Gregory was called to rebuild the faith in the great See of Constantinople, which had been under Arian teachers for three decades. Retiring and sensitive, he dreaded being drawn into the whirlpool of corruption and violence. He first stayed at a friend's home, which became the only orthodox church in the city. In such surroundings, he began giving the great sermons on the Trinity for which he is famous. In time, Gregory did rebuild the faith in the city, but at the cost of great suffering, slander, insults, and even personal violence. An interloper even tried to take over his bishopric.

His last days were spent in solitude and austerity. He wrote religious poetry, some of it autobiographical, of great depth and beauty. He was acclaimed simply as "the Theologian." St. Gregory Nazianzen shares the celebration of his liturgical feast with St. Basil the Great on January 2.
